

WHAT CAN ONE DONATION CHANGE?

Support for women and children who have survived violence – an opportunity for safety, recovery, and a new start.

For women and children who have survived domestic and gender-based violence, professional psychosocial support can be a crucial step toward a safe and dignified life.

“Isi Arka” provides exactly this kind of support - assistance for survivors to overcome the consequences of violence, regain their self-confidence, and move forward.

HOW MUCH DOES SUCH A SERVICE COST?

According to the Price List for Services of the Ministry of Social Policy, Demographics and Youth, the price is 1,018 MKD for one hour of individual service per beneficiary, or 301 MKD for group counseling.

However, for these services to be charged to the beneficiaries, the organization must hold an appropriate license.

WHAT DOES “ISI ARKA” DO?

From September 1, 2023, to September 1, 2026

“Isi Arka” provided:

285

psychosocial services to:

175

survivors of domestic and gender-based violence.

Currently, "Isi Arka" does not possess a license, so these services are provided thanks to the support of international and domestic donor.

This means that every contribution directly enables these services to remain accessible to those who need them most.

WHAT CAN YOUR SUPPORT CHANGE?

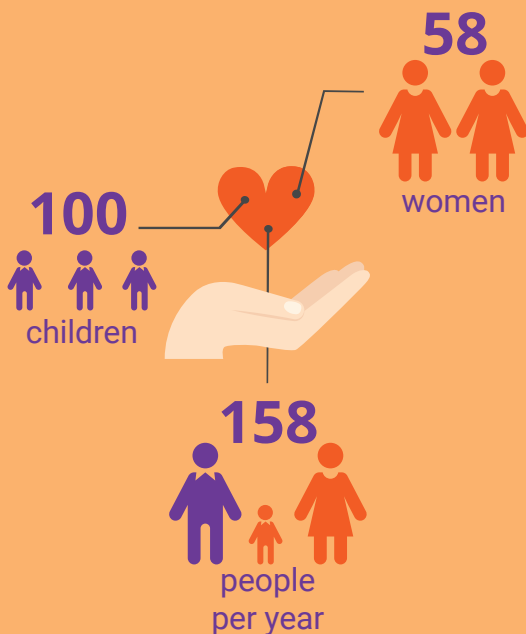

Your donation is not just financial support for an organization. It is support for a woman trying to rebuild her life. It is support for a child growing up in a family affected by violence. And it is an investment in the opportunity for a family to receive professional help, safety, and a chance for a new start.

Imagine...

2.057.100 per year

Support for approximately:

158

people with an opportunity for support.

people with an opportunity for change.

people with an opportunity for a new start.

What if your support is what makes this possible?

Help and a new chance for 158 people per year.

Priceless.
